 Blake: I don't know how to say this....Uh....In 1957 an 11 year old boy named Jason Voorhees drowned.... The counslers who were supposed to watch them were in a barn having sex...Pamela Voorhees..Jason's mother..Went crazy..She blamed all counslers...she tried to stop the camp from opening several times...fire poisoned water things like that ...in 1980 she went on a rampage...She murdered all the counslers at the camp except for one Alice something..She killed Mrs. Voorhees...She dissapeard a couple years later...Since then there have been numerous murders all over the lake...In 1993 the F.B.I killed Jason Voorhess...Now's where the myth comes into play...Steven Freeman as well as Jessica Kimball say that in 93 they sent Jason Voorhess to hell. The F.B.I blamed a boutny hunter named Creighton Duke for the murders. Steven and Jessica were also suspects. They dissapeared in 94...So you see no matter which story you belive...Jason Voorhess died in 1993...He's been dead for almost a decade...No matter what the people of this town say....I understand if you want to leave...However there is nothing to be afraid of..

>
